Celebrate our New Beginning!

As Washington County's oldest theatrical organization, we would like to invite you to be a part of our first season of performances in our new home! After 82 seasons at the Hagerstown Women's Club we have become the resident theater company at The Academy Theater, 58 East Washington Street, Hagerstown, MD. This incredible opportunity renews our commitment to keep the arts alive in this area.

We are a totally volunteer non-profit organization and our ticket prices do not fully fund our production expenses. Each year we rely on the support of business people like yourself who recognize the importance of preserving our local tradition of quality live theater. Our playbills are seen by hundreds of people during each of our shows. Our new, professionally-designed theater can accommodate even bigger audiences than ever before and each person is a potential customer for your business.

Our advertising rates are very competitive and we can help with layout and design at no extra charge if you require those services. Please review this brochure and contact me if you have any questions.

Let's work together to keep alive the tradition of fine entertainment in our community.
